

AAAA-AAA Playoffs start today

The AAAA and AAA divisions were assigned Wednesday for double-elimination play starting Thursday.

In the AAAA Division, the numbers told the story on the top 8 teams, and 4 teams dropped to AAA where they received the top 4 seeds as a result of their playing AAAA pool play.

Four teams from the general pool population moved to the double-elimination AAA playoffs. Included were two 4-0 teams and two 3-1 teams, leaving three 4-0 teams in Thursday's Game 5 Pool Play.

The committee's final decision was unanimous after it had reviewed the records of all 4-0 and 3-1 teams opponents, whom their one loss was too and details of the one loss.

In setting up the playoffs, there were some anomalies in the final product, to wit ...

AAAA

In AAAA, there were 2 unforeseen considerations with the matchups and the scheduling.

On the matchups, traditional bracketing has #1 playing #8 and #4-#5 in the top half of the bracket, with #2-#7 and #3-#6 in the opposite half.

As a result of the RHWS playoff scheduling guideline that Tuesday AAAA matchups are not repeated in the first round of the playoff, the AAAA matchups have a twist: #1 playing #7, #8 at #2, #5 at #3 and #6 at #4.

When the final seeds were set in AAAA (they were in order of finish), it was determined that in 3 of the 4 first-round matchups, the games were repeats of Tuesday games, so the matchups were adjusted while teams kept their seeding positions for home

Wednesday was Veterans Day, and before each of the 6 Vintage Division games Wednesday, the teams observed a moment of silence in honor and memory of American military veterans before joining in with the playing of the National Anthem.

After Thursday's pool games, the remaining teams will be separated into 3 divisions for single-elimination playoffs.

That separation will be based on records, runs allowed, and other tiebreakers.

All remaining 38 teams will be set in those three playoff brackets. The plan is to have 12 teams in the AA and A divisions, and 14 teams in the B Division.

In the AA, A and B divisions, first round and quarterfinal games will be scheduled Friday, with semifinals and championships set for Saturday.

The seeding in the B Division will be done by draw at RJ Gators Thursday night.

Vintage Division Game 5

The game 5 pairings for the Vintage Division will be announced Thursday evening at the Masters-Vintage week pairings party.

There are 11 teams in the Vintage Division and team #11 will receive a bye through Friday and be scheduled to play a double-header Saturday against teams #9 and #10.

For Friday, teams 1-10 will be matched, as closely as possible by record but there will be no repeat matchups from earlier in the week.

Playoff eligible pitchers

Pitching in the playoffs ...

All starters and closers in the playoffs must have pitched at least 2 full innings (6 outs or 15 hitters) during the first four games.

(Starters are defined as those players who will pitch the first 3 innings of playoff games, and closers are those pitchers who will pitch in the 8th and 9th innings when the score differential is 3 runs or fewer.)

All data for pitchers was reported to Roy Hobbs and will be verifiable, upon demand, through a team's scorebook.

All other players eligible for the playoffs are eligible to pitch in innings 4-thru-7.

Roy Hobbs understands the data below may be incomplete. Changes, however, will only be made with scorebook in hand for verification.

All players listed below are eligible to pitch as starters or closers in the playoffs:

team designation throughout the playoffs.

On a second front, in scheduling, most AAAA and AAA teams will get a break between games.

That was done so that the remaining Masters teams – 38 of them – could finish pool play by 5 p.m. and thereby facilitate getting AA-A-B playoff pairings completed in a timely manner.

AAA

In AAA, the decision on which teams would come from the general pool of teams was a little more difficult.

There were five 4-0 teams in the general pool to go with 9 3-1 teams.

In keeping with the RHWS approach that all 3-1 and 4-0 teams are candidates for AAA, the Committee looked at the following factors in making their decisions with regard to which teams to move to AAA:

- Records and runs allowed in all games and best 3 games.
- Initial seeding of each of the teams.
- Strength of schedule.

The Tennessee Dirtbags and Toledo Paramount strength of schedule numbers made them automatic moves to AAA. The numbers involving Pensacola, Oak Lawn and Tidewater showed much weaker schedules, and their numbers were similar.

When the 0-4 strength of schedule numbers were compared to the top 2 3-1 teams, those two teams – Jersey Shore All-Stars and Youngstown Astros – appeared to be much stronger to committee members.

The decision was made to move Jersey Shore and Youngstown to AAA because the committee believed that if one moved up, both should. And, the committee came to the conclusion that all 3 remaining 4-0 teams were so close with their numbers that they all needed to stay together.

Hence, Jersey Shore and Youngstown were moved into AAA as strength of schedule became the determining factor.

Friday's pairings

After Thursday's pool games, the remaining teams will be separated into 3 divisions for single-elimination playoffs. That separation will be based on records, runs allowed, and other tiebreakers.

There will be 38 teams involved, so the anticipated AA-A-B breakdown will be 12-12-14. Teams losing their Thursday pool games will not be eligible for any of the division byes.

In the AA, A and B divisions, first round and quarterfinal games will be scheduled Friday, with semifinals and championships set for Saturday.

The seeding in the B Division will be done by draw at RJ Gator's Thursday night.

Ace & King of the Diamonds

Masters: Tuesday's 'Ace' and 'King' of Diamonds in the Masters Division come from the Apple Valley A's and Wilmington Stingrays.

Ace: Mike Skora of the Apple Valley A's: In a 13-1 victory over the DHBA Athletics, Mike pitched a complete game, giving up one run on 5 hits, and he struck out 4 with no walks.

King: Terry Ward of the Wilmington Stingrays: In a 19-7 loss to Choctawhatchee, Indians Terry was 4x4, with a double, 3 runs scored and 3 RBI.

Vintage: Wednesday's 'King' of Diamonds in the Vintage Division come from the Georgia Classics. No pitchers were nominated, and there were no nominations at all from Tuesday play, so there are no awards for that day.

King: Chuck Freedman of the Georgia Classics: In a 10-4 loss to Detroit, Chuck was 2x3 with a double, run and RBI.

Each of the daily winners will receive a gift of playing cards from Roy Hobbs Baseball, and at the end of the week, the names 5 Aces (Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday) and 5 Kings will be entered in a Saturday morning drawing for a $25 Roy Hobbs Pro Shop gift certificate.

The Ace and King will be announced each day in the daily Inside Pitch, and their names will be posted on an announcement board at Lee County Sports Complex.

Players considered for the Ace and King designation come from the daily reports supplied by managers, either on the game reports turned in after games or game reports turned in via email the same day as the game was played. Reports turned in a day late will not be considered for the recognition.
