Remembering Veterans

Today is Veterans Day, a special day of Remembrance for all of us.

Roy Hobbs Baseball is pleased to be able to have opportunities to honor the veterans in our midst as well as all veterans on this special day.

There will be Veterans Remembrances at the start of each game today. And here are some options for teams and players to consider.

Following the plate meeting at each game, we are asking both teams to line up on the baselines.

At that point, we are suggesting ...

1. A moment of silence in honor of American veterans, or ...
2. If someone from your team would like to speak to the meaning of the day or offer a prayer, we think that is appropriate as part of the moment of silence, or ...
3. Feel free to ask those players at your field who are veterans to introduce themselves – so we can thank them personally – and tell us their branch of service and years of service ... and then have a moment of silence in remembrance of all veterans.

From Roy Hobbs standpoint, our Veterans are a big reason why we are able to play this game of Baseball that we love so much and enjoy the game and facilities here in Fort Myers.

RH committee meets Wednesday to determine 53 AAAA Playoffs

The Roy Hobbs Legends Division Advisory Committee will meet at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at Roy Hobbs World Series headquarters to determine the set up and seeding for the Legends AAAA playoffs, which will be announced no later than 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Although all AAAA managers have been invited to participate on the committee, any interested managers are welcome to come and be involved too. Anyone interested in attending should contact Tom Giffen at World Series Headquarters.

Legends play began Monday with 12 teams in the AAAA hunt. The Committee will determine the 8 teams that remain in the AAAA double-elimination playoffs and then seed those teams. The Legends AAAA double-elimination playoffs start Thursday.

The remaining 4 teams will be added to the general pool and play a fifth pool game Thursday. Those teams then will be seeded in the AAA or AA single-elimination brackets for Friday.

The seeding and scheduling for all AAAA playoff games will be posted at World Series Headquarters at the Player Development Complex and be available on royhobbs.com/world-series as well as being put on the Roy Hobbs message line: 239.533.7694.
